

I do not want the state of wisconsin to be affected by the recent attempt to change the law about the no call list. It should remain as it is at the present time. No special interest groups like the banking assoc. should have any affect on the no call list. Please keep it as is.